MALONE — Beth Wiggins tossed a no-hitter with nine strikeouts to lead Malone to a 17-0 drubbing of Norwood-Norfolk in Northern Athletic Conference girls' softball action Friday afternoon. Haley Poupore had two hits, including a second-inning grand slam to pace the Huskies offensively. Ashley Marshall also had two hits. Malone scored 12 runs in the second inning. Losing pitcher Kara Homes gave up eight hits and walked 10 batters.

NORWOOD — The Huskies, down 5-1 after two, scored seven runs in the top of the third inning and pulled away to their opening-day victory.

Brad Fleury, who took over relief in the first inning, went the rest of the way and struck out nine to pick up the win. He didn't allow a run from the third inning on.

Brad Rivers, Joe Egan and Zack Leffler rapped out two hits apiece for the Huskies, with Rivers hitting a solo homer and Daniel Marshall a two-run shot.

"It wasn't pretty, but it was nice to get outdoors for a change," said Malone coach Dean LaVine.
