

Alfred H. Trost

Written by pressrepublican.com
Sunday, December 17, 2000

WILLSBORO — Alfred H. Trost, 82, died at CVPH Medical Center in Plattsburgh Saturday, Dec. 16, 2000.

He was born in Detroit, Mich., on May 1, 1918, the son of Henry and Lillian (Barbell) Trost. Mr. Trost grew up in the Plattsburgh area and married Louise (Lasouska), who predeceased him in 1998.

He served in the Army Airforce during World War II. He was an aircraft-engine mechanic and he received a good conduct medal.

After his service time, he attended college in Plattsburgh and received a master