

Alfred A. Hart

Written by pressrepublican.com
Tuesday, February 12, 2002

KEESEVILLE — Alfred A. Hart, 70, of Keeseville, N.Y., and Crystal River, Fla., died Friday, Feb. 8, 2002, in Ocala, Fla.

He was born in Keeseville, N.Y., Sept. 11, 1931, the son of the late Arthur J. Hart and Grace (Miller) Hart Kinch.

He was self employed for many years and operated the BP Service Station on U.S. Avenue in Plattsburgh, N.Y., and Mobile Service Station in Willsboro, N.Y. until his retirement.

He is survived by his loving companion, Shirley Brean of Country Gardens in Keeseville, N.Y., and West Robin Lane in Crystal River, Fla.; three sons, Karl A. Hart, of La Costa Drive, Clifton Park, N.Y., Donald A. Hart of Buffalo, N.Y., and Bryan Hart of Black River, N.Y., and one daughter, Michelle Roby, of Willimantic, Conn.; one sister, Alma Dennis; one brother and sister-in-law, Sherwood and Nancy Hart all of Keeseville, N.Y.; Two brothers-in-law, Ernest Pasho of Keeseville, N.Y., and Lloyd Stevens of Willsboro, NY.; Also survived by nine grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his wife, Isabelle (Duquette) Hart; his father, Arthur J. Hart, mother, Grace (Miller) Hart Kinch; four sisters, Viola Lamere, Emma Pasho, Rosemary Watrous and Shirley Stevens; and two brothers, James A. Hart and George Hart.

There will be no calling hours and burial will be in St. John