

Alice M. Allen

Written by pressrepublican.com
Friday, May 03, 2002

---

CROWN POINT, N.Y. — Alice M. Allen, 91, formerly of Crown Point, N.Y., died Friday, May 3, 2002, at the Horace Nye Nursing Home, Elizabethtown, N.Y.

She was born in Willsboro, N.Y., the daughter of George and Mabel (Phelps) Sayward.

She married Albert (Bob) Allen on July 2, 1927.

Alice is survived by 2 sisters - Gladys (Sayward) and husband, Bud Cushing of Willsboro and Betty (Sayward) Squires of Plattsburgh, N.Y.; four brothers, Ralph Sayward and wife, Ruth of Southington, Conn., Russell Sayward and wife, Martha of Ocala, Fla., Richard Sayward and wife, Virginia of Willsboro, N.Y., and Stephen Sayward and wife, Virginia of Essex, N.Y. Also surviving are several sisters-in law, nieces, nephews, grand and great-grand nieces and nephews. Also surviving are Betty and Bruno Corbo and families who fulfilled a very meaningful family role in Alice