

Alfred E. Lee

Written by pressrepublican.com
Tuesday, August 06, 2002

Willsboro, N.Y. — Alfred E. Lee, 74, of Bay Road, Willsboro, N.Y., died at CVPH Medical Center on Monday, Aug. 5, 2002, after a 28 year battle with rheumatoid arthritis.

He was born in Willsboro on March 7, 1928, the son of Henry Bob and Mabel (Blanchard) Lee. Mr. Lee was in the U.S. Coast Guard stationed in Newfoundland, where he served as a radarman 3rd class and received a World War II victory ribbon.

He was a member of the Keeseville Veterans of Foreign War 1505, Keeseville BPOE 2072, and Uncle Jake