Plattsburgh --- Alfred Butch W. Carpenter, 57, of Ellenburg Center, died Thursday, April 15, 2004, at CVPH Medical Center.

He was born May 18, 1946, in Rouses Point, N.Y., the son of Armand Favreau and Inez Carpenter. They predeceased him.

He served in the U.S. Army during Vietnam. He married Donna E. Lavoie on Aug. 10, 1985. Most of his working life he was a New York State Correction Officer, retiring from Altona Correction Facility. He was an avid NASCAR racing and Dale Earnhardt No. 3 fan. He also enjoyed camping and the outdoors.

He was predeceased by one sister, Joyce Pelkey.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Christine Trombly of Keeseville, N.Y., and Kimberly Grass of New Hampshire; and three grandchildren, Kevin, Kara and Kristen Trombly. There will be no calling hours. A Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated on Tuesday, April 20th, at 10 a.m. at St. Patrick's Church in Rouses Point. Burial will follow in St. Patrick's Cemetery in Rouses Point.

Donations may be made in his memory to the American Heart Association.

Arrangements are with M.B. Clark Funeral Home in Rouses Point.
