

Ana Marino

Written by pressrepublican.com
Sunday, December 26, 2004

84, died Friday, Dec. 24, 2004, at the Evergreen Valley Nursing Home. She was born in Puerto Rico on Sept. 7, 1920, the daughter of Agustin and Basilia (Laracuenta) Marino.

Ana is survived by one daughter and one son, Lydia Puig of Peru and Jose Puig of Gettysburg, Pa.; six grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; a brother, Israel Rodriguez of Plano, Texas; and several nieces and nephews.

Calling hours will be from 10 a.m. to noon today at Brown Funeral Home in Plattsburgh. A funeral service will follow at noon with the Rev. Floyd Bleaux, pastor of Our Lady of Victory Church, officiating. Burial will be in the spring of 2005 in St. Augustine