

Aletha M. Wemette

Written by pressrepublican.com
Friday, March 25, 2005

Keeseville — Aletha M. Wemette, 80, of Prospect Road, Keeseville, N.Y., passed away Friday, March 25, 2005, at the CVPH Medical Center with her family by her side. She was born in Black Brook, N.Y., on April 16, 1924, the daughter of Joseph and Esther (Edwards) Fountain. Aletha had worked as a machine operator at Arpak Plastics in Plattsburgh, N.Y. She enjoyed gardening, reading and spending time with her family. Aletha was a member of the Catholic Community of Keeseville Churches.

She was predeceased by her parents, Joseph and Esther (Edwards) Fountain; her brother, Oswald Fountain; her sisters, Elida Miller, Mildred Fountain and her twin sister, Leigh Fountain. She is survived by her children, Danny Wemette of Keeseville, Jerry Wemette and his wife Marianne of Keeseville and their children, Christine and Michelle, Tammy Smith and her husband Alan of Morrisonville and their children, Matthew and Cassandra, Terry Wemette and his wife Kelly of Binghamton, N.Y., and their children, Randy and Heidi; and several nieces and nephews.

At Aletha's request, there will be no calling hours.

A memorial Mass will be held Thursday, March 31, 2005, at 11 a.m. at the Immaculate Conception Church in Keeseville.

Interment will be at a later date in the family plot in the Port Douglas Cemetery.

Friends wishing may make donations to the charity of one