

Adelaide S. Mace

Written by pressrepublican.com
Monday, February 06, 2006

CROWN POINT, NY — Adelaide S. Mace, 95, passed away Sunday, Feb. 5, 2006.

She was born in Saranac Lake, the daughter of Fredrick and Emma Brunell Sweatt.

She married Dermot S. Mace of Saranac Lake Aug. 11, 1938.

She graduated from Eastman School of Dental Hygiene in Rochester, N.Y., and was a dental hygienist for Essex County and BOCES.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Keith and Nancy Brannock of Ticonderoga; her son and daughter-in-law, Stuart and Agatha Mace of Crown Point; grandchildren, Lori Mosher and husband Randolph of Warrensburg and Jared Mace of Arlington, Va.; and great-granddaughter, Miranda Mosher of Forestville, N.Y.

There will be no calling hours. A graveside service will be held at the convenience of the family at the Pine Ridge Cemetery in Saranac Lake.

Donations in her memory may be made to the Crown Point Emergency Squad.

Harland Funeral Home in Port Henry is in charge of arrangements.