MORRISONVILLE — Alice M. Bishop, 89, of Rock Road, died Thursday, April 19, 2007, at the CVPH Medical Center.

She was born in AuSable Forks on Nov. 26, 1917, the daughter of John and Eva (Agnew) Blair. Alice was a member of St. Joseph's Church in Treadwells Mills, the Schuyler Falls Senior Group and the Beekmantown Seniors Group.

She enjoyed playing bingo with her friends.

Alice worked in Buffalo, N.Y., for Curtis-Wright Aircraft Factory for two years, then at Pal Blade and retired from Georgia Pacific with 31 years of service as a machine operator.

Survivors include one son and daughter-in-law, Robert and Linda Bishop of Chateaugay Lake; three daughters and three sons-in-law, Veronica and Donald Macey of Plattsburgh, Donna and Roland Carter of Morrisonville and Gladys and Warren Desrocher of Morrisonville; one brother and sister-in-law, Leon and Lucile Blair of Plattsburgh; 12 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her husband, Amos Bishop; two brothers, Roger and Robert Blair; two grandsons, Charles (Chuck) Macey and Lonny Bishop; and one great-great-grandson, Damion Crossley.

Calling hours will be held on Sunday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. at the R.W. Walker Funeral Home in Plattsburgh.

A Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated Monday at 11 a.m. at St. Joseph's Church in Treadwells Mills.

Entombment will follow in Whispering Maples Memorial Gardens, Tom Miller Road, Plattsburgh. Memorial donations may be made to the cancer fund on behalf of her son, Robert Bishop and a very dear friend, Kim Fulton, who have both survived cancer.
